ANNOUNCEMENT

It is a pleasure to send this catalogue of our first farm sale. It is a greater pleasure to extend to you a cordial invitation to be with us on day of sale, in order that you may inspect the breeding herd and note the class of cattle we have raised and are offering at this time.

In this offering, we have tried to pick individual animals of age and breeding to suit the most discriminating buyer, the small farmer and the beginner. In the enclosed pages from the Shorthorn World, you will find a full description of our farms, our cattle and our operations. Most of it is a matter of Shorthorn History. However, only a visit to our farms can really convince you as to the merit of "Naemoor Blood."

In spite of the fact we are off the Beaten Trail of Shorthorn Breeders, we are convinced that Pennsylvania can produce as good cattle as any other state and as good beef as any place in the world. As a matter of fact, Eastern Herds are continually increasing and getting "better and better." Until such time however as this becomes a bigger Shorthorn State, we do not expect our efforts to improve the breed, will be fully appreciated. This means there will be bargains for the buyers and while a loss to us at present, we hope it will mean a gain in the future.

Hoping to have the pleasure of your company on May 31st. 1923.

Yours very respectfully,

LANCONA FARMS
